Tuesday, April 2, 1901.

Secretary Horace Wilson, of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association, officially announces that 1,379 mares have been named in the rich Kentucky Futurity, value $21,000, for foals of 1901, which closed March 15. This is 100 less than were nominated in the record breaking list of 1900, but is in itself a magnificent showing, attesting the popularity of the stake and the association giving it.

This is the twelfth renewal of the Futurity, which is universally regarded as the greatest trotting event in the world. Thirty-five States and Territories are represented in the entry. Kentucky is naturally the largest nominator, as the Kentuckians are colt sellers and have named that an unnamed colt is about as salable as one afflicted with the "slow." The Governor of Arizona, not wishing his ball-wick entirely unrepresented, named one mare himself.

Twenty members of Capt. Hawn's militia company at Barboursville have filed suits of $10,000 each for damages against the L. & N. Railroad Company for alleged bad treatment on the trip to and from Gov. Beckham's inauguration.

Mrs. NATION met with a cold reception at Indianapolis Saturday. Less than five hundred people paid to hear her lecture, and she was snubbed by both temperance and saloon people.

I have been in the business long enough in Paris to have my reputation as a workman thoroughly established. I will clean, scour and press your suits and guarantee the job for $1.50, and no one can do it cheaper and do it right. Just think this over and see if I am not right. Your trade solicited.

To Kill Tobacco Flies.

A well-known tobacco man of this city says the work of morning tobacco in Virginia is greatly simplified by catching the flies. Tubes partly filled with water are placed in various portions of the field; after sunset lighted lanterns are placed immediately above the tubes; the flies are attracted by the lights, and fall into the water and are drowned. -Winchester Democrat.

STORIES OF THE STAGE.

Coming Attractions, Gossip In the Lobby and Boxes.

Roland Reed, the actor, died Saturday.

Mauroe Barrimore, who has been frequently seen in this city, has gone insane and is confined in the insane ward of Bellevue Hospital, New York.

One of the latest theatrical successes is a play entitled "The Night Before Christmas." Recently the manager of the company received a letter from a local manager in a small town asking, what is the "Night Before Christmas" about. The answer was, "about December 24th."

Frank Daniels' "Anker" company was the first attraction to play the Grand Opera House in Canton, Ohio, since it passed into the possession of President McKinley.

The Theodora Company which was billed to appear here to-night, closed their season in Lexington Saturday and returned to New York.

The complimentary benefit to the little artists, Ruth and Baby Clare, at the Grand on Friday night was quite a success, both financially and artistically. Each act by those who kindly volunteered their service was a hit, and received hearty encores. Ruth and Clare, considering the very short time they had been on the stage, are certainly wonders. Baby Clare has justly been termed the "Baby Padewski." She have never taken a lesson in music, and cannot read it, but nevertheless can play the most difficult pieces by hearing it once. Miss Ruth has a wonderfully strong voice, and is a graceful little actress. The two undoubtedly have a brilliant future before them.

A COUNTRY correspondent of one of our local contemporaries, in telling about an old lady in his precinct who had reached the age of 92 years, gives the remarkable information that "it is nothing unusual for her to wash, iron and milk several cows every day."

"Cholly Knickerbockers" Troubles.

"Cholly Knickerbocker's" society correspondent of the New York Sunday Journal, who is none other than our own John W. Keller, has gotten himself into a peck of trouble, and incidentally cost Editor Hearst, of the Journal, the neat little sum of $10,000. Willie Stokes, he of the many millions, married a beautiful young Cuban girl and lavished every thing upon her that money could buy. But when the honeymoon began to wane their love did likewise, and soon the New York gossips began to tell about family scandals, etc. The story spread, until finally it reached the ears of "Cholly Knickerbocker," who published a column or more about it and embellished the story with his own particular style of sarcasm which New York's "four hundred" so much admire. The outcome of it all was that Willie Stokes sued Willie Hearst for damages, and the jury awarded him $10,000 and now "Cholly Knickerbocker" is sorry he did it.

Stock and Crop.

There was an unusually large crowd in town courtyard, but the offerings of stock was very light. M. J. Murphy & Co., at the Paris Stock Yards, report the following: B. F. Dwyer offered 85 head of 700-lb. cattle, which were unsold; Jos. Reagan sold 12 head at $25 per head; L. C. Ashcraft, 4 head unsold; 8 cows offered an unsold.

The Danville fair will be held this year August 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th. Mr. H. C. Bright is secretary.

Mr. Jonas Weil has sold to Caswell 80 head of calves for $4.50.

Boach & Netherland, of Louisville, sold to Pirtle & Trabue, who are District Attorneys of the Illinois Central R.R., a pair of star mare mules, six years old and weighing 2,400 pounds. This pair of mules go to Mr. Stuyvesant Fish, President of the I. C. R. R., who has shipped them to his farm on Hudson river in New York. This is the best pair of mules that has been sold and shipped from Kentucky. Price paid, $500.

Mr. Ashby Leor of this county, purchased last week one hundred thousand pounds of tobacco, averaging $5.00.

State Geologist Blatchley, of Indiana, has sent out warning to fruit growers to look out for the coming of the seventeen-year locusts. The advance guard may be expected this year, but not in sufficient numbers to do much injury to trees. Next year, he declares, countless millions of the pests will swarm over the state, and will do widespread damage to orchards. He recommends that no orchards or shade trees be set out this season, and if they are set out they must be carefully watched and protected. The State Geologist says the locusts are due June 10, 1903, at which time they will have been in the earth for 17 years. They will then appear, climb the young trees, sing and deposit their eggs for the crop which is to appear, 17 years hence. The deposit of the eggs, he states is what injures the trees.

No ladies' toilet table is complete without a bottle of "Antiseptoline."

A Gentle Hint.

In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature, rain, wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day, it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Boech's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill; and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing Consumption, Hemorrhages, Pneumonia, Severe Coughs, Croup, or any disease of the Throat or Lungs, its success is simply wonderful. Your druggist will tell you. Get a sample bottle free from W. T. Brooks, Paris, Ky. Regular size, 75 cts. Get Green's Prize Almanac.
